Bombas Donates 3,000 Pairs of Socks to Support Jonnycake Center of Westerly

Westerly, RI – The Jonnycake Center of Westerly announced that it recently received 3,000 pairs of new socks donated by Bombas, a global leader in ultra-comfortable and community-conscious apparel. The socks will be distributed by the Jonnycake Center to southern Rhode Island residents in need.

Bombas is a socially-responsible clothing retailer that donates a pair of socks for every pair it sells. The company was founded in 2013, guided from the beginning with a philosophy of donating to those most in need. To date, the company has donated over 25 million pairs of socks to non-profit organizations that assist the homeless or low-income individuals. Additionally, Bombas has partnered with over 1,700 "Giving Partners" nationwide to distribute socks, shirts, and other clothing staples for individuals who might otherwise not be able to afford them.

Valued at $8 per pair, Bombas' sock donation to the Jonnycake Center of Westerly represents a $24,000 contribution to Rhode Island residents in need.

"The Jonnycake Center of Westerly is thrilled by Bombas' wonderful show of support," said Lee Eastbourne, Executive Director. "The unfortunate reality is that every day, millions of Americans must choose between paying for shelter, paying for food, or paying for basic clothing needs. The coming of winter makes the choice even more dire. Thanks to Bombas, the decision will be easier for countless individuals in our community."

The Jonnycake Center of Westerly's Social Services department will distribute the 3,000 pairs of socks to income-eligible southern Rhode Island residents over the coming weeks.
