Jonnycake Center of Westerly Postpones Annual “Jumping for Jonnycake” Live Music Event
Rescheduled date to be announced.

Westerly, RI – The Jonnycake Center of Westerly regrets to announce that out of an abundance of caution from the 2020 COVID-19 outbreak, and under guidelines established by federal and state authorities, the Center’s 2020 “Jumping for Jonnycake” live music event at the Knickerbocker Music Center in Westerly, RI is postponed. Details of the rescheduled event will be announced in the coming weeks.

The announcement comes after careful consideration of the safety of guests, musicians, and staff at the Knickerbocker Music Center.

“We are saddened to have to postpone this year’s “Jumping for Jonnycake” as it is a favorite annual event in Westerly and earns valuable fundraising for our non-profit organization,” said Lee Eastbourne, Jonnycake Center of Westerly Executive Director. “We remain confident that after the COVID-19 pandemic subsides, we can reschedule the event and invite the community to a wonderful afternoon of live music from established and rising local musicians, all while helping a good cause.”
