Jonnycake Center of Westerly Provides No-Cost Winter Hats, Gloves, Face Masks for Neighbors and Children in Need

Westerly, RI – The Jonnycake Center of Westerly invites local residents in need to contact its Social Services office to receive free winter hats, gloves, and face masks. Please call (401) 377-8069 and select Option 1; or email Sarah Cote, Social Services Program Director, at scote@jonnycake.org; or visit the Social Services office at 23 Industrial Drive in Westerly during its open hours.

Winter hats, gloves, and face masks are available in a variety of sizes for adults and children. They have been provided from an abundance of generosity from Westerly-area residents and businesses, service clubs, and religious groups. As of press, there is currently a limit of one of each item per person.

“With more neighbors than ever struggling financially amid the pandemic, we felt it was imperative to offer winter essentials free of charge for those most in need,” said Sarah Cote, Jonnycake Center of Westerly Social Services Program Director. “Our mission is to ensure that all in our community can stay warm, safe, and cared for year-round, and that mission is most critical in the winter months. We invite any local resident in need to contact us to receive no-cost hats and gloves for the winter, and a free face mask to help prevent the spread of COVID-19.”

Please contact Jonnycake Center of Westerly Social Services at the info above, or visit the office in-person to learn more and receive these items. The office is open 12pm to 3pm on Mondays, and 9am to 12pm on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays. Modified procedures are in place due to COVID restrictions – please inquire for details.
