Jonnycake Center of Westerly Expands COVID-19 Vaccine Clinic Eligibility to Rhode Island and Connecticut Residents

Wood River Health Services to Offer COVID-19 Vaccines On-Site in Late May, Early June 2021

Westerly, RI – The Jonnycake Center of Westerly has announced that Rhode Island and Connecticut residents are eligible to receive COVID-19 vaccines in a public clinic that the Center is hosting in conjunction with Wood River Health Services.

The clinic will take place at 23 Industrial Drive in Westerly, Rhode Island on the following days:

- May 24, May 25, May 26, & May 27: 9am to 12pm and 12:30pm to 3pm
- June 2, June 3, & June 4: 9am to 12pm and 12:30pm to 3pm
- June 5: 9am to 12pm

Pre-registration is preferred, but walk-ins will be welcome while supplies last. To register in advance, please visit SignupGenius.com/go/jccvaccine, visit jonnycake.org, or call Jonnycake Social Services at (401) 377-8069 and select Option 1.

Healthcare professionals from Wood River Health Services will administer the Moderna vaccine to most visitors. Some single-dose Johnson & Johnson vaccines may be available on request. Except for June 5, all visitors must be a Rhode Island or Connecticut resident age 18 or older.

On June 5 only, 12-17 year olds can visit to receive their first dose of the Pfizer vaccine. Pre-registration is required for this option.

As an incentive to encourage vaccination, all visitors will have the opportunity to enter a drawing for $100 in store credit for the Jonnycake Center of Westerly's 7,000 square foot Thrift Store!

The Jonnycake Center of Westerly is a leading provider of Social Services in the Westerly, RI area. The organization also operates a Food Pantry and a revenue-driving Thrift Store open to the public seven days per week. Learn more at jonnycake.org or call (401) 377-8069.
